

Sometimes You Gotta Shout

Sometimes you gotta shout in the valley
You gotta praise in the storm
You gotta lift your hands to heaven
Let your praise win the war

When the battle is hard
And the walls seem so tall
Lift a shout unto heaven
And the walls they will fall

When the battle is raging
And you're bound to a wall
Lift your praises to heaven
And the chains they will fall

When the enemy's coming
And your strength is so small
Send your praises ahead
And the enemy will fall

Lord we lift our hands
Lord we lift our praise
Lord will lift your name
Let your name be praised

Sometimes you gotta shout
Sometimes you gotta praise
Sometimes you gotta lift your hands
Sometimes you gotta dance like crazy

Sometimes you gotta shout
