

And Again I Hear Your Call

©2004 Angel Records and Publishing

Sometimes I fall, Sometimes I crawl
You're always there always with me
Sometimes it hard, To see Your way
But then there's another day

Sometimes I cry, I don't know why
In the wilderness I seem
Your visions clear, Your words so near
But then they seem like a dream

I lift my hands You pick me up
No matter how far down I fall
I seek your face You're always there
And again I hear your call

I always try, Sometimes I fail
But still You guide my way
Sometimes I'm blind, And I don't hear
Still You don't let me stray
