

God and I

©2004 Angel Records and Publishing

I see in your eyes
So much from my past
Yet more of my future
One that will last

I see in your heart
All the hurt and the fear
The love and the joy they seem
Hidden in tears

When you reach out
I (He) will be there
All you need to do is call
You don't have to go
Through this all alone
God and I we will be there

The things that you're going through They're not what they seem
God keep his hand on his own

For you that are weeping will Return with joy
Knowing that God's love
Never will fail
