

Lost In Your Presence

©2004 Angel Records and Publishing

Situations around me, all through the day
Pressing me in from all sides
Pulling and pushing and wearing me down
But I'm standing on solid ground

Oh I need to be lost in your presence oh Lord
Oh I need to be lost in your love
Far away from this world while I'm standing on earth
Oh I need to be there every day

Distractions abounding, the cares of this world
Trying to pull us away
But Jesus, you're faithful, never leave me
Not even a whisper away

Nothing can separate me from You
And nothing can take me away
Not height, nor depth, nor death, nor life
You are there all of my days
