Watch your TV, Listen to the news
Read the papers, You get to choose
The wise woman builds here house
The foolish tears it down
From the abundance of your heart you'll speak
Will your words tear it down?

Fill your heart with, The word or the world
What you sow there will grow there, You can be sure
You can sow with the wheat of the word
Or you can sow with tares
Be careful what you're sowing there
Or be choked by worldly cares

In your comfort zone, Are you growing cold? \
In your comfort zone, Are you approaching the throne > (LT 2X)
In your comfort zone, Is Jesus your home? /
(Get out of) In your comfort zone, Your comfort zone
Your comfort zone (LT Your comfort zone)

Are you burdened, With the lost or the hurt?
Are you praying and seeking, His kingdom on earth?
Do you know Him in is power
Or in His suffering?
It's not too late to meet Him there
His praises to bring

I searched for a man to watch and to pray
But no one was found to cry out every day
Will you be willing to answer the call?
For Jesus is waiting to answer for all
