Follow Your word, Follow Your way
Listen to all that You say
Follow your road, Wherever it goes
I'm so sure You'll show the way

All of my needs, I know You'll meet
All that I have I give to You
All of my heart, Not just a part
I give it all to you

Using the sword of Your Spirit
Using the power in Your name
Using the fight, to bring the light
Give glory to your name

Glory goes to the Father
Glory goes to the Son
Glory comes from the Spirit
And together they are one
