

Looking Up

(Words by Joe and Angel)

I'm on the narrow road
And I'm not going back
Looking straight ahead
I'm not looking back

The road ahead looks hard
Just can't see my way
And when I look down
All I see's the ground

I'm looking up to you
Looking up to you
Looking up

Nothing to my right
And nothing to my left
But there's a lamp for my feet
And a light for my path

Feel like I'm walking
In the valley of the shadow of death
Feel like I'm praying
Like it might be my last breath
