

I Have a Promise

Hanging on the edge of time
Feel about to lose my mind
Why God chose the human race
Looking at us face to face

Trust look up and offer Him
A willing heart it pleases Him
Faith is what our God looks for Faith enough to call Him Lord

I have a promise, He's given me
I have a promise, By faith receive
I have a promise, He's given me
I have a promise, If I only believe

Will you take his hand today?
Will you learn to walk his way?
And not go by what you see
Walk by faith and you'll receive

Eyes look, to what we see
God works, when we believe
Flesh goes, by what we feel
Heart's cry is really real
