She was lost, in the crowd
Much commotion around
But she needed to reach the Master
Though many had tried
None could help heal inside
She just needed a touch from above

Then she heard of a Man,
With power in his hands
Who could heal with just a touch
And she said in herself
If I just can but touch
His power will heal me too

Reach out and touch
The hem of His garment
Just have faith
And press on through
Reach out and touch
He's drawing you nearer
The power of God
Will make you whole

So you're lost in the crowd
Is God really around?
Cause you need a touch of His love
There's a hurting inside
That can't be denied
Only God can touch you there too

He's the same yesterday and forever
He's the same now He's reaching for you
He's the same yesterday and forever
Just reach out, let him touch you
