©2007 Angel Records and Publishing

She was so young, And Him just a boy
The word on the street, Pregnant unwed teen
It didn't look right, It didn't look clean
But things are not always, Quite what they seem... For

God had a plan and they had to trust Him
God had a plan and not what it seemed
God had a plan and they had to trust Him
God had a plan, They just didn't see

The time drew near, For the baby to come
They were on the road, To Bethlehem
Then no room at the inn, What would they do
A stable in back, It would have to do...For

The angels declared, And shepherds they came
A star in the sky, Wise men did the same
The wise men brought gold, And other gifts too
And as turned out, It would see them through...For

Born in a stable in Bethlehem
Destined to die and to rise again
Atoning sacrifice for every sin
Once for all yes for every man
God had a plan

God has a plan and you have to trust Him
God has a plan and not what it seems
God has a plan and you have to trust Him
God has a plan you just do not see
