

Curtains for You

©2014 Angel Records and Publishing

You thought that you had won
When the crowd yelled “crucify”
And soldiers led Him off to die
You thought you had Him beat
When you tied Him to that post
And blood flowed when you striped His back

But then on the 3rd day He rose again
Having paid all of the price for our sin
Yes on the 3rd day He rose again
And soon we’ll see Him as He is

And its curtains for you, curtains for you
Devil its curtains for you
Curtains for you, curtains for you
Devil its curtains for you
The show is over and we all know the truth
Now its curtains for you
Curtains for you, curtains for you
Devil its curtains for you

You thought you won the fight
When you nailed Him to that tree
And He hung there bleeding and dying
You thought it all was done
When you buried Him in the tomb
And rolled the stone into its place
