

Proclaim

We knew Him as a humble man,
Though power of God was in his hands
He healed the sick and raised the dead,
When He commanded demons fled

The things He spoke were more than words,
Things before we'd never heard
They filled our hearts with life and joy,
And gave us hope forever more

Proclaim His glory,
Proclaim His majesty
Proclaim the honor due his name
Proclaim His glory,
Proclaim His power
Proclaim and magnify His name

They nailed Him to a wooden cross,
Bruised and bled and died for us
A tomb of rock they placed him there
But He's alive He is not there

Jesus, Jesus, This whole world needs to know Jesus
In power, In majesty, Jesus is coming again
Jesus, Jesus, This whole world needs to know Jesus
He's wonderful, and He saves us, Jesus is coming again
